On Broadway Thespians

On Broadway Theatre presents their Christmas play "Bah Humbug", a delightful musical perspective on the otherwise classic story of Ebenezer Scrooge and the TRUE meaning of Christmas. ETPA Elections

The Egyptian Theatre Preservation Association is looking for new directors and committee members for 2008. The Association is an all volunteer group. It signed a two year management agreement with the City of Coos Bay Urban Renewal Agency in July and received 501(c)3 non-profit status in September. If you're interested or have any questions, please send a brief resume to the theatre at 229 S Broadway, Coos Bay, call David at 260-1033 or Rick at 297-8659. You can also email publicity@egyptian-theatre.com. A list of all the positions that are up for election will be posted on our website soon. If you're interested in running for office, the deadline to submit your name for consideration is December 1st, so don't delay.

Benefit Auction

The Egyptian Theatre Preservation Association, the Marshfield Print Museum and the Oregon Coast Historical Railway are sponsoring a joint fundraiser. Art, antiques and collectables will be featured in silent and live auctions on Thursday, Nov 8th beginning at 6:30pm. Items will be available for preview on Wednesday, November 7th from 1-7pm and Thursday before the auction from 1-6pm. Both the previews and the auctions will take place at the Egyptian Theatre. Items for auction include Roseville and Weller pottery, vintage tools and machinery, Coos history items and a full-day Golden and Silver Falls excursion for six with expert guides, among many others. There will also be live music to enjoy, along with wine and cheese tasting. For more information about the auction, contact Rick at (541) 267-8659.

There's still time to become a Founding Member of the Egyptian Theatre Preservation Association, if you join before January 1st. There are several levels of membership, each with its own rewards and membership fees at all levels are half-price. All members get discounts on movies and will have a vote in the upcoming elections for new Board Members. To join, pick up a membership form at the theatre, call Dave at 260-1033, or email publicity@egyptian-theatre.com.

Did you know...?

The two pharaohs who guard the upstairs balconies are named Stanley and Foster. They were named after the original two owners of the Egyptian Theatre.

A Note from the Board

As it gets close to the end of our first full year, the ETPA Board of Directors and Committe Chairs would like to say thank you to all the people who have helped keep the Egyptian Theatre alive. That includes all our members, volunteers, supporting businesses, performers, movie goers and the City of Coos Bay. We have had some great events this year and made big strides in the restoration of the theatre, and we're glad that all of you were part of it. But there is still so much more than needs to be done to keep the theatre running for years to come. The Egyptian Theatre is truly a unique building. Its preservation and continued use will be a valuable asset to our area, both historically and culturally. We are all excited to continue to be part of the Egyptian's success and we hope you are, too. Please come see us in 2008.

Happy New Year!
